Our goal is to educate children through adventure, which is activity on one's personal frontier. We encourage independence and self-discipline; we work to enhance self-esteem and initiative. We try to provide through staff, facilities, and program, an atmosphere conducive to the development of habits, attitudes, and values which may last a lifetime. That atmosphere is non-competitive, the better to reduce pressure and to encourage experimentation with new ideas and skills; and it is structured but non-regimented, the better to promote thought, initiative, and self-direction. Please see our brochure and DVD for more information.

Main Camp is the session of choice for those campers wishing the greatest exposure and opportunity for building friends and skills. For ages 8 to 17.

June Camp is an excellent choice for those wanting a taste of summer fun, with time for a family trip or other substantial activity. For ages 7 to 13.

August Camp and the Early June Camp are short, fun, introductory sessions for six to ten year olds (through at least the first grade) not quite ready for a longer term.

* August Camp is coed; Early June Camp is not. In Early June, boys will be at Mondamin, and girls at Green Cove. In August, both will be at Mondamin.

Family Camp (concurrent with August Camp) for families. Please send for information and separate registration form.

General Information

Fee Includes...	Laundry, sheets and blankets (but not pillows or pillow cases), all activities (riding, etc.), all trips, ordinary supplies (crafts, ammunition on the rifle range, etc.), airport pickup/return, medical care in the infirmary.
Not Included...	Backpack rental (see below, and page 3), personal gear, spending money.
Financial Assistance...	If cash flow is a problem, a modified payment schedule may be worked out. Limited financial assistance is available based on need. Application deadline: February 15.
Refunds and Trip Insurance...	Refunds are not made after the due date. We do not refund for late arrival or early departure, nor for cancellations for any reason, including medical. Trip insurance is available which covers expenses and lost camp fees in case of a medical emergency. Information on request.
Medical...	Services rendered by our camp nurse or doctor are included in the fee. Accidents or illness requiring outside care or unusual medicines are parental responsibilities. Camp does not carry health or medical insurance – since most families have such insurance already, we depend on yours.
Store...	Please send a deposit for the store so that your camper may purchase such incidentals as stamps, toiletries, tennis balls, etc. The camp store sells no candy or drinks. It does sell T - Shirts and sweatshirts in the $12 to $35 range. We suggest $125 for the Main Session, $50 for June Camp, and $15 for the Early June or August Camp.
Responsibilities...	To promote training in responsibility and self-sufficiency, and to keep costs down, campers help clean up, do dining room chores, and other chores as necessary.
Honor and Conduct Code...	Campers will be asked to agree to and sign an Honor and Conduct Code, which outlines expected, as well as unacceptable, behavior in a community living environment such as ours. Use or possession of tobacco or drugs is not tolerated, nor is stealing or vandalism. The right is reserved by the director to dismiss any camper who is judged detrimental to the general welfare of the group. In such cases, no refund will be made.
Candy, gum...	Parents and friends are asked to send no gum, candy, or other food , except fresh fruit.
Visiting...	Visiting your camper is best done on Sundays. We ask that campers not leave camp with parents, friends, relatives, etc. more than once during June Camp, or twice during Main Camp, and not overnight. No visiting, please, in Early June or August Camp.
Laundry ...	Wash and fold, done weekly, here at camp.
What to bring...	In early March we will send a checklist for camp, a medical form, a request for travel information, etc. No uniforms are required – basic clothing and camping gear are all that are really needed. August Camp info is sent out in early July.

Supplemental Information Regarding Application

1. If parents are legally separated or divorced, please provide us with instructions regarding who should receive camp correspondence, precamp information (checklists, medical forms, etc.), and financial statements.
2. If anyone other than a parent is to be financially responsible for the camper, please be sure we have the name and address of that person, and any pertinent details.
3. A Backpack is your "suitcase" in the woods, and is necessary for overnight camping. You may supply your own, or rent from camp (June Camp: $25; Main Camp: $30; Early June and August Camp: no charge). Camper is responsible for damage. Limited number available; advance reservation required.
4. A camper may request to bunk with a friend. We DO NOT GUARANTEE cabin placements, and suggest that under most circumstances it's best to let us pick a cabin placement for you, based on our knowledge of campers and counselors. If you do wish to bunk with a specific person, then EACH MUST REQUEST THE OTHER. No more than two from one area may bunk together; please do not make more than two requests. Our objective, as an educational institution, is diversity in cabin groups, as opposed to homogeneity.

Contract

I. Authority to Enroll/Financial Responsibility/Right to Expel

1. The undersigned represent that I/we are the parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of (camper's name) _____ and have authority to enroll him/her in the camp program under the terms of this agreement. (Both mother and father must sign this contract unless legally separated or divorced, and the signing parent has sole custody). I have read and am in agreement with the terms on pages 1 and 2 of this application, and agree to pay all fees specified therein by the dates indicated, and to reimburse Mondamin-Green Cove, Inc. (hereinafter called "the camp") for any necessary out-of-pocket expenses advanced by the camp on the camper's behalf. In the event of default in timely payment of fees and costs agreed to in this contract, I agree to pay the camp's reasonable attorney's fees and collection costs.
2. I understand and agree that no portion of the camp fee will be refunded after due date. I understand and recognize the right of the camp to expel (without refund) any camper who a) willfully engages in any activity which jeopardizes his or her own safety or the safety of others, b) is a negative influence on others in the camp community; or c) engages in conduct contrary to the camp Honor and Conduct Code. I understand that use or possession of alcohol, tobacco, or non-prescribed drugs is not tolerated and will result in immediate expulsion. I/We have taken or will take the time to explain these responsibilities and the consequences to my/our child.
3. I grant permission to use any photographs or video which include my child in camp's promotional materials.

II. Participant Agreement and Acknowledgement of Risk

In consideration of the services of Mondamin-Green Cove., Inc., its agents, owners, officers, volunteers, participants, employees, and all other persons or entities acting in any capacity on their behalf (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the camp"), I hereby agree to release and discharge the camp on behalf of myself, my children, my parents, my heirs, assigns, personal representative and estate as follows:

1. I acknowledge that many camp activities involve strenuous physical exercise, and entail known and unanticipated risks which in rare instances could result in serious physical or emotional injury, paralysis, or death. I understand that such risks simply cannot be eliminated without jeopardizing the essential qualities of the program. These activities include, but are not limited to, swimming, sailing, whitewater canoeing and kayaking, horseback riding (including jumping), mountain biking, rock climbing, and ropes courses. There are trips on rivers and into remote areas which do not afford prompt communications with camp or with rescue or medical facilities, and from where evacuation can take time. Furthermore, counselors and instructors have difficult jobs to perform. They seek safety, but are not infallible. They might misjudge a participant's fitness or abilities. They might misjudge the weather, the elements, or the terrain. They may give inadequate warnings or instructions, and the equipment being used might malfunction.
2. To the extent allowed by law, we the undersigned waive, release, forever discharge and agree to indemnify and hold harmless the camp from all rights and claims for damages, injury or loss to person or property which may be sustained or occur while at camp or on camp trips, or in any activity which is in any way connected with camp, or any use of its equipment or facilities, including such claims which allege negligent acts or omissions by the camp. In addition, the camp does not maintain locked gates, and does not represent that it can properly supervise or restrain a minor who wishes to run away. The undersigned understand(s) that the camp cannot be responsible for a camper who leaves camp without permission. Except as disclosed to the camp in writing, the undersigned represent that the camper has no abnormal physical or mental condition which has not been disclosed. Any condition disclosed must be accompanied by a doctor's certificate attesting to the camper's ability to participate.
3. Should the camp or anyone acting on behalf of the camp be required to incur attorney's fees and costs to enforce this agreement, the undersigned agree to indemnify and hold them harmless for all such fees and costs. In consideration of the applicant, who is a minor, being permitted by the camp to participate in its activities and to use its equipment and facilities, I further agree to indemnify and hold harmless the camp from any and all claims which are brought by, or on behalf of, the applicant, and which are in any way connected with such use or participation by the applicant.
4. I certify that I have adequate insurance to cover any injury or damage the applicant may cause or suffer while participating, or else I agree to bear the costs of such injury or damage myself.
5. By signing this document, I acknowledge that if anyone is hurt or property is damaged during the applicant's participation at camp, I may be found by a court of law to have waived my right to maintain a lawsuit against the camp on the basis of any claim from which I have released them herein.
6. Campers are sometimes invited to go out of camp with other camper's parents, relatives or friends*. With the understanding that the camp has no ability whatsoever to control or supervise such outings, or to guarantee safety in any way, the undersigned specifically give permission for the camper to leave camp once only (twice during Main Camp) in the care of:
 Does not have the above permission. May go out with his/her own relatives over age 21. * No visiting during Early June or August Camp
 May go out with other camper's parents. Additions? _____
7. If any provision of this contract is held to be invalid or unenforceable, all other provisions shall nevertheless continue in full force and effect.
8. The undersigned agree that this contract shall be deemed to have been entered into in Henderson County, North Carolina, and that Henderson County, North Carolina is designated as the proper venue and jurisdiction for the adjudication of any disputes arising out of this contract, and that the laws of the State of North Carolina shall apply. The terms of this contract shall be binding upon the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the parties hereto.
9. I have had sufficient opportunity to read this entire document. I have read and understood it, and agree to be bound by its terms.
